

United States Interagency Council on Homelessness

No one should experience homelessness. No one should be without a safe, stable place to call home.

Katy Miller

Regional Coordinator, US Interagency Council on Homelessness

Katy Miller is a Regional Coordinator on the National Initiatives team at the United States Interagency Council on Homelessness based in Seattle, Washington. She serves as a principal representative and bridge between the work of the full Council and states and communities. In this role, she is responsible for facilitating the implementation of the Federal Strategic Plan - Opening Doors specifically in Alaska, Hawaii, Idaho, Oregon, Nevada, Washington, Utah, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Katy has been working for 20 years in non-profits and government. As a public and private funder for nine years she was instrumental in forming funding partnerships to create thousands of housing opportunities for individuals and families in the region and launched new initiatives to help people move out of homelessness into permanent housing. Katy has a passion for building partnerships and innovative solutions towards ending homelessness.
